- Information about Schedule O (Form 990 or 990-EZ) and its instructions is at www.irs.gov/form990.

Name of the organization

Employer identification number

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Schedule O (Form 990 or 990-EZ), such as legislation enacted after the schedule and its instructions were published, go to www.irs.gov/form990.

Purpose of Schedule

An organization should use Schedule O (Form 990 or 990-EZ), rather than separate attachments, to provide the IRS with narrative information required for responses to specific questions on Form 990 or 990-EZ, and to explain the organization's operations or responses to various questions. It allows organizations to supplement information reported on Form 990 or 990-EZ.

Do not use Schedule O to supplement responses to questions in other schedules of the Form 990 or 990-EZ. Each of the other schedules includes a separate part for supplemental information.

Who Must File

All organizations that file Form 990 and certain organizations that file Form 990-EZ must file Schedule O (Form 990 or 990-EZ). At a minimum, the schedule must be used to answer Form 990, Part VI, lines 11b and 19. If an organization is not required to file Form 990 or 990-EZ but chooses to do so, it must file a complete return and provide all of the information requested, including the required schedules.

Specific Instructions

Use as many continuation sheets of Schedule O (Form 990 or 990-EZ) as needed.

Complete the required information on the appropriate line of Form 990 or 990-EZ prior to using Schedule O (Form 990 or 990-EZ).

Identify clearly the specific part and line(s) of Form 990 or 990-EZ to which each response relates. Follow the part and line sequence of Form 990 or 990-EZ.

Late return. If the return is not filed by the due date (including any extension granted), attach a separate statement giving the reasons for not filing on time. Do not use this schedule to provide the late-filing statement.

Amended return. If the organization checked the Amended return box on Form 990, Heading, item B, or Form 990-EZ, Heading, item B, use Schedule O (Form 990 or 990-EZ) to list each part or schedule and line item of the Form 990 or 990-EZ that was amended.

Group return. If the organization answered "Yes" to Form 990, line H(a), but "No" to line H(b), use a separate attachment to list the name, address, and EIN of each affiliated organization included in the group return. Do not use this schedule. See the Instructions for Form 990, I. Group Return.

Form 990, Parts III, V, VI, VII, IX, XI, and XII. Use Schedule O (Form 990 or 990-EZ) to provide any narrative information required for the following questions in the Form 990.

4. Part VII, Compensation of Officers, Directors, Trustees, Key Employees, Highest Compensated Employees, and Independent Contractors.

Reminders

Identifying number. We have added a box for individuals who file this form. These users must enter their social security number, as indicated on this form. All other users must enter their federal employer identification number. Do not fill in both boxes.

Changes to Form 8868. A Return Code is assigned to each return type in lieu of checkboxes. Enter the Return Code of the form this application pertains to in the Return Code Box.

Electronic Filing (e-file). Effective January 2011, Form 8868 can be filed electronically to request either the Part I, automatic 3-month extension (6 months for a corporation required to file Form 990-T) or Part II, additional (not automatic) 3-month extension. Electronic filing can be used to request an extension of time to file each of the forms listed in both Parts I and II with the exception of Form 8870 which must be sent in paper format to the address below.

If you are going to make an electronic funds withdrawal (direct debit) with this Form 8868, see Form 8453-EO or Form 8879-EO for payment instructions.

Purpose of Form

Form 8868 is used by an exempt organization to request an automatic 3-month extension of time (6 months for a corporation required to file Form 990-T) to file its return and also to apply for an additional (not automatic) 3-month extension if the original 3-month extension was not enough time. You cannot apply for both the automatic 3-month extension and the additional (not automatic) 3-month extension at the same time.

Also, the trustee of a trust required to file Form 1041-A or Form 5227 must use Form 8868 to request an extension of time to file those returns. These instructions apply to such trusts unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

Use Part I to apply for an automatic 3-month extension of time to file an organization's return, and submit the original form to the IRS (no copies are needed).

Part II is used to apply for an additional (not automatic) 3-month extension. Only file the original form with the IRS (no copies needed).

The automatic 3-month extension (6 months for a corporation required to file Form 990-T) will be granted if you properly complete this form, file it, and pay any balance due on line 3c by the due date for the return for which the extension applies.

You cannot use Form 8868 to extend the due date of Form 990-N.

An organization will only be allowed a total extension of 6 months for a return for a tax year.

When To File

Generally, file Form 8868 by the due date of the return for which you are requesting an extension, or, in the case of an additional 3-month extension, by the extended due date of the return. When requesting an additional extension of time to file, file Form 8868 early so that if your request is denied you can still file your return on time.

Where To File

If you do not file electronically, send the application to:

Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service Center
Ogden, UT 84201-0045

Form 8870 must be sent in paper format to the address above.

Do not file for an extension of time by attaching Form 8868 to the exempt organization's return when it is filed.

Filing Information

No blanket requests. File a separate Form 8868 for each return for which you are requesting an automatic extension of time to file. This extension will apply only to the specific return checked. It does not extend the time for filing any related returns. For example, an extension of time for filing a private foundation return will not apply to the return of certain excise taxes on charities (Form 4720).

Each Form 8868 filer who owes taxes for the year should file their own Form 8868, and pay only their share of the total tax liability due.

Also, black lung benefit trusts, their trustees, and any disqualified persons filing Form 990-BL must each file separate Forms 8868.

Exempt Organization Group Returns.

A central organization may apply for an extension of time to file a group return. Complete and check the appropriate box and enter the Group Exemption Number (GEN) after the area titled "Check type of return to be filed." If the extension is not for all the organizations that are part of the group, you must attach a schedule to Form 8868 showing the name, address, and employer identification number of each organization that is included in this request for an extension.

Interest. Interest will be charged on any tax not paid by the regular due date of the return from the due date until the tax is paid. It will be charged even if the organization has been granted an extension or has shown reasonable cause for not paying on time.

Late payment penalty. Generally, a penalty of 1/2 of 1% of any tax not paid by the due date is charged for each month or part of a month that the tax remains unpaid. The penalty cannot exceed 25% of the amount due. The penalty will not be charged if you can show reasonable cause for not paying on time.

Reasonable cause determinations. If you receive a notice about penalties after you file your return, send an explanation and we will determine if you meet reasonable cause criteria. Do not attach an explanation when you file your return. Explanations attached to the return at the time of filing will not be considered.

If you receive an extension of time to file, you will not be charged a late payment penalty if (a) the tax shown on lines 3a or 8a (or the amount of tax paid by the regular due date of the return) is at least 90% of the tax shown on the return, and (b) you pay the balance due shown on the return by the extended due date.

Late filing penalty. A penalty is charged if the return is filed after the due date (including extensions) unless you can show reasonable cause for not filing on time. The penalty is 5% of the tax not paid by the regular due date for each month or part of a month that the return is late, up to a maximum of 25% of the unpaid tax. For an income tax return filed more than 60 days late, the minimum penalty is $100 or the balance of the tax due on the return, whichever is smaller.

Reasonable cause determinations. If you receive a notice about penalties after you file your return, send an explanation and we will determine if you meet reasonable cause criteria. Do not attach an explanation when you file your return. Explanations attached to the return at the time of filing will not be considered.

Different late filing penalties apply to information returns. See the specific form instructions for details.

Tax Payments

The exempt organization must use electronic funds transfers to make all federal tax deposits, including excise and income taxes. Forms 8109, Federal Tax Deposit Coupon, and 8109-B, FTD Deposit Form (Over The Counter Version), can no longer be used to make federal tax deposits. Generally, electronic funds transfers are made using the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS). EFTPS is a free service provided by the Department of the Treasury.

To get more information about EFTPS or to enroll in EFTPS, visit www.eftps.gov or call 1-800-555-4477. Additional information about EFTPS is also available in Publication 966, The Secure Way to Pay Your Federal Taxes.

If the exempt organization does not want to use EFTPS, it can arrange for its tax professional, financial institution, payroll service, or other trusted third party to make deposits on its behalf. Services provided by a tax professional, financial institution, payroll service, or other third party may have a fee.

Special Payment Option for Small Foundations

A private foundation may enclose a check or money order payable to the United States Treasury with Form 8868, if it meets all of the following requirements:

1. The foundation must not be required to use EFTPS,
2. The amount entered on line 3a of Part I or line 8a of Part II of Form 8868 must be less than $500, and
3. The payment must be the full balance due.

Be sure to write the fiscal or calendar year and "Form 8868" and the foundation's name, address, and EIN on its check or money order.

Foreign organizations should see the appropriate form instructions for balances due with an extension.

Specific Instructions

Extending the time to file does not extend the time to pay tax.

Part I. Automatic 3-Month Extension

Only complete Part I if you are applying for an automatic 3-month extension of time (6 months for a corporation required to file Form 990-T) to file the organization's return.

The automatic 6-month extension applies only to Form 990-T filed by a corporation.

If the organization has already received a 3-month automatic extension of time to file and still needs more time, you may apply for an additional (not automatic) 3-month extension by completing Part II of this form.

Name of exempt organization or other filer.

The filer may be an exempt organization, a non-exempt organization (e.g., a disqualified person or a foundation manager trustee), or an individual. The typical filer will be an exempt organization. Certain filers may not be an exempt organization. For example, Form 4720 filers may be one of the other entities listed above.

Address. Include the suite, room, or other unit number after the street address. If the Post Office does not deliver mail to the street address and the exempt organization has a P.O. box, show the box number instead of the street address.

If the organization receives its mail in care of a third party (such as an accountant or an attorney), enter on the street address line "C/O" followed by the third party's name and street address or P.O. box.

If the address is outside the United States or its possessions or territories, in the space for "city or town, state, and ZIP code," enter the information in the following order: city, province or state, and country. Follow the country's practice for entering the postal code. Do not abbreviate the country's name.

If the organization's mailing address has changed since it filed its last return, use Form 8822, Change of Address, to notify the IRS of the change. A new address shown on Form 8868 will not update the organization's record.

Enter the Return Code for the type of return to be filed. Enter the appropriate Return Code in the box to indicate the type of return for which you are requesting an extension. Enter only one Return Code. You must file a separate Form 8868 for each return.

Exempt organizations such as corporations, private foundations, and trusts must enter their federal employer identification number. Individuals must enter their social security number.

Filers should only fill in one box.

Line 1. The date that is entered on line 1 cannot be later than 3 months (6 months for a corporation required to file Form 990-T) from the original due date of the return.

Line 2. If you checked the box for change in accounting period, you must have applied for approval to change the organization's tax year unless certain conditions have been met. See Form 1128, Application To Adopt, Change, or Retain a Tax Year, and Publication 538, Accounting Periods and Methods, for details.

Note. All filers must complete lines 3a, b, and c, even if you are exempt from tax or do not expect to have any tax liability.

Line 3a. See the organization's tax return and its instructions to estimate the amount of tentative tax reduced by any nonrefundable credits. If you expect this amount to be zero, enter -0-.

Line 3c. Balance due. Form 8868 does not extend the time to pay tax. To avoid interest and penalties, send the full balance due with Form 8868.

For information on EFTPS, see Tax Payments, above.

Note. Be sure to see any deposit rules that are in the instructions for the particular form you are getting an extension for to determine how payment must be made.

No signature is required when applying for an extension of time to file under Part I.

Part II. Additional (Not Automatic) 3-Month Extension

Only complete Part II if you are applying for an additional (not automatic) 3-month extension of time to file the organization's return. If you have not already filed for an automatic 3-month extension (Part I of this form), you may not file for an additional 3-month extension.

Name of exempt organization or other filer.

The filer may be an exempt organization, a non-exempt organization (e.g., a disqualified person or a foundation manager trustee), or an individual. The typical filer will be an exempt organization. Certain filers may not be an exempt organization. For example, Form 4720 filers may be one of the other entities listed above.

Address. Include the suite, room, or other unit number after the street address. If the Post Office does not deliver mail to the street address and the organization has a P.O. box, show the box number instead of the street address.

If the organization receives its mail in care of a third party (such as an accountant or an attorney), enter on the street address line "C/O" followed by the third party's name and street address or P.O. box.

If the address is outside the United States or its possessions or territories, in the space for "city or town, state, and ZIP code," enter the information in the following order: city, province or state, and country. Follow the country's practice for entering the postal code. Do not abbreviate the country's name.

If the organization's mailing address has changed since it filed its last return, use Form 8822, Change of Address, to notify the IRS of the change. A new address shown on Form 8868 will not update your record.

Enter the Return Code for the type of return to be filed. Enter the appropriate Return Code in the box to indicate the type of return for which you are requesting an extension. Enter only one Return Code. You must file a separate Form 8868 for each return.

Exempt organizations such as corporations, private foundations, and trusts must enter their federal employer identification number. Individuals must enter their social security number.

Filers should only fill in one box.

Line 4. The date that is entered on line 4 cannot be later than 6 months from the original due date of the return.

Line 6. If you checked the box for change in accounting period, you must have applied for approval to change the organization's tax year unless certain conditions have been met. See Form 1128, Application To Adopt, Change, or Retain a Tax Year, and Publication 538, Accounting Periods and Methods, for details.

Line 7. For the IRS to grant the organization an additional 3-month extension of time for filing a return, the organization must file an application on time and include an adequate explanation why the return cannot be filed by the already extended due date. Describe in detail the reasons causing the additional delay in filing the return. We cannot approve applications that give incomplete reasons, such as "illness" or "practitioner too busy," without adequate explanation.

Generally, we will evaluate an application on the organization's efforts to fulfill the filing requirements, rather than on convenience for your tax preparer. But if your preparer is not able to complete the return by the due date for reasons beyond his or her control or, in spite of reasonable efforts, the organization is not able to get professional help in time to file, the IRS will generally grant the extension.

If a request for an extension is made for no important reason but only to gain time, we will deny both the extension request and the 10-day grace period.

If an extension is granted and the IRS later determines that the statements made on this form are false and misleading, the extension is null and void. The organization will be subject to the late filing penalty explained earlier.

Note. All filers must complete lines 8a, b, and c, even if you are exempt from tax or do not expect to have any tax liability.

Line 8a. See the specific form and form instructions to estimate the amount of tentative tax reduced by any nonrefundable credits. If you expect this amount to be zero, enter -0-.

Line 8c. Balance due. Form 8868 does not extend the time for paying tax. To avoid further interest and penalties, send the full balance due with Form 8868.

For information on EFTPS, see Tax Payments, above.

Note. Be sure to also refer to any deposit rules that are in the instructions for the particular form you are getting an extension for to determine how payment must be made.
